Secretary to Government of Mysore
Mulzrai Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Nanjundappana Kappanna an iiiteless but charitably disposed individual of Devanhalli town has deposited Rs 3000/- in the Taluk Treasury of Devanhalli and prays that Government may sanction an interest of 6 per cent per annum for that amount and he proposes to use the interest for

for the following charitable purposes.
(1) for helping Students (2) for the puja of Sri Vaungopalaswamy temple (3) for keeping water shed during the hot season and (4) for feeding on the occasion of the car festival. As this is purely a charitable purpose the donor's prayers deserve some concession.

On the receipt of sanction of Government a detailed programme of working out the charity in accordance with the wishes of the donor will be submitted.

The correspondence ending with yad No 124 dated 17th August 1904 from the Assistant Commissioner in Charge of the Taluk is submitted for reference.
